TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

The pursuit of law has a social purpose notwithstanding the material allurements it offers; the discourse of law is discourse of civility and any society for it to remain civilized, requires the adherence and respect for law, the role of a lawyer is, thus challenging and requires sagacity. When a student of law joins the legal studies, he contrives or strives to achieve certain purposes for him but the true import of legal education lies in embodiment of a social purpose in his own set goals. Pratham Bansal, student of Fairfield Institute of Management and Technology (FIMT) in BBA, LL.B at 2021-2026 has occasion to join me w.e.f 10th August, 2023 to 10th September, 2023 as a part of his internship program. He had occasion to assist our team in conducting crucial cases listed before Hon'ble High court of Delhi, Central Administrative Tribunal –Principal Bench, National Green Tribunal and some matters in District & Session Courts at Delhi. He has beautifully and with due diligence, done the research assigned to him. At all levels, he has displayed the quest for learning notwithstanding the fact that most of the legislations which involved the litigation in hand, were not the part of his course curriculum.

The inquisitiveness which I find, often impelled him to raise questions of law-whose answer required some background on settled principles of administrative and constitutional law, when he was informed of the source to read, it was encouraging to see that he is prepared with his readings the very next day. The liking which he has developed for profession, albeit not for bar but for bencher, impressed me to assign certain crucial assignments for upcoming litigation in hand. It is praiseworthy to record his research on the public law character of private bodies working for disability.

Notwithstanding the pressing professional commitment which we have to undertake immediately after reopening of courts, he has managed to tread me to academic discourses which he had broached and I failed to resist temptation of avoiding it at the cost of part heard matters.

I must record his appreciation for work done by him and wish him all success in life. I wish him to prepare himself well for being a capable and erudite professional on either side of bar or bench.

With best wishes,
