When Shivam joined our firm for internship, I interviewed him, He was found to be knowledgeable and had command over the subject. He is a well mannèred person and has a desire to be a successful lawyer. I am extremely happy to say that he can express himself most cohimently.

I have seen a transformation in Shivam in a month's time and his sense of sincerity towards the profession, he is very warm hearted. He did not refuse to furnish legal data and precedents even beyond office hours. His sound knowledge of technical gadgets proved extremely handy.

Shivam exhibited a flair for participating in legal discussions, preparation of cases, and fondness for attending Court proceedings during this internship.

Shivam has shown a deep sense of responsibility in meeting deadlines even at the cost of personal inconvenience. He has exhibited discipline during this internship. Throughout his tenure. I found Shivam to be extremely polite, refined and professionally oriented.

Shivam never had any difficulty with the Senior Counsel, Middle Rung counsel, Junior Counsels or even the Administrative staff, Court Clerks, Chauffeurs, Peons etc. This means he has ability to adjust in any environment.
