S. No.	Week	Task Assigned
1	WEEK 1 10 th January (Friday) to 17 th January 2025	During the first week of my internship, I was entrusted with three key assignments. Firstly, I worked on a project concerning urban planning in India, focusing on how the government engages urban planners through the Town and Country Planning Organisation (TCPO), noting that implementation varies from state to state, although most states broadly follow TCPO guidelines. Secondly, I researched the concept of professional indemnity in professional services, analysing both the Indian and global frameworks. Lastly, I undertook a mapping exercise of medical professions in India, identifying the scope and limitations under various legislative and regulatory frameworks governing sectors such as medicine, dentistry, nursing, midwifery, paramedics, and veterinary sciences.
2	WEEK 2 20 th January (Monday) to 24 th January (Friday) 2025	During the second week of my internship, I continued the mapping exercise for medical professions, conducting a more detailed analysis of the regulatory frameworks governing various healthcare sectors, including medicine, dentistry, nursing, midwifery, paramedical services, and veterinary sciences. I also researched the market access (MA) and national treatment (NT) limitations applicable to these professions under various acts and regulations. Furthermore, I was told to research and map legal services, consulting and management services, as well as IT and related professional services, focusing on their regulatory structures, qualification requirements, and applicable MA/NT limitations.
3	WEEK 3 27 th January (Monday) to 31 st January (Friday) 2025	During the third week of my internship, I worked on a project examining the presence and potential of Global Capability Centres (GCCs) in India beyond Tier-1 cities, with a focus on the hub-and-spoke model. This involved studying various state-level policies, reports, the legal forms of establishment, and global best practices to assess the enabling ecosystem. Additionally, I contributed to Chapter 1 of a key policy document titled State of the Economy: Getting Back into the Fast Lane, where I was responsible for drafting the conclusion and suggesting a forward-looking roadmap.
	WEEK 4 3 rd February (Monday) to 7 th February (Friday) 2025	During the fourth week of my internship, I helped in revising and refining the analysis on Global Capability Centres (GCCs) in India, with an emphasis on their expansion beyond Tier-1 cities and the operational viability of the hub-and-spoke model. Additionally, I worked on identifying the legal form of establishment for each professional service sector in India. This included detailing the applicable market access (MA) and national treatment (NT) limitations for each sub-sector in accordance with the prevailing domestic legal and regulatory frameworks.

Month 2-

S. No.	Week	Task Assigned
1	WEEK 1 10 th February	During the fifth week of my internship, I continued working on the legal form of establishment for various professional services. Additionally, I conducted an in-depth

	(Monday) February (Friday)	to 14 th 2025	analysis of regulatory gaps in the medical services sector and contributed to outlining a structured way forward to address these gaps, ensuring alignment with global best practices and improving regulatory coherence.
2	WEEK 2 17 th (Monday) February (Friday)	February to 21 th 2025	During the sixth week of my internship, I continued analysing regulatory gaps in the medical services sector and refined the proposed way forward. Additionally, I prepared a PowerPoint presentation summarising key findings and recommendations from the Domestic Regulations in Professional Services Sector.
3	WEEK 3 24 th (Monday) February (Friday)	February to 28 th 2025	During the seventh week of my internship, I studied globally followed Good Regulatory Practices (GRPs) in the services sector. I also worked on the chapter addressing Domestic Regulation (DR) in services, analysing FEMA 1999 and related regulations to identify provisions relevant to market access (MA) and national treatment (NT) across different service sectors.
4	WEEK 4 3 rd March (Monday) to 7 th March 2025 (Friday)		During the eighth week of my internship, I continued working on the chapter on Domestic Regulation (DR) in services, with a continued focus on FEMA 1999 and its associated regulations. Additionally, I analysed relevant provisions under the Companies Act, 2013 and the Competition Act, 2002 to assess their implications for service sector regulation, particularly in relation to market access (MA) and national treatment (NT).

Month 3-

S. No.	Week	Task Assigned
1	WEEK 1 10 th March (Monday) to 12 th March 2025 (Wednesday)	During the ninth week of my internship, I continued developing the chapter on Domestic Regulation (DR) in services, focusing on the Companies Act, 2013 and the Competition Act, 2002, examining their impact on service sector governance. Additionally, I researched India's Mutual Recognition Agreements (MRAs) in professional services, analysing their scope and implications for cross-border service trade.
2	WEEK2 17 th March (Monday) to 21 th March 2025 (Friday)	During the tenth week of my internship, I continued my research on India's Mutual Recognition Agreements (MRAs) in professional services. Additionally, I contributed to drafting and reviewing the Report on Domestic Regulations in Professional Services.
3	WEEK 3 24 th March (Monday) to 28 th March 2025 (Friday)	During the eleventh week of my internship, I updated the research on India's Mutual Recognition Agreements (MRAs) in professional services, incorporating recent developments and policy changes. Additionally, I analysed the impact of labour laws on the services sector in India, examining how regulatory frameworks influence workforce dynamics and service delivery.
4	WEEK 4 1 st April (Tuesday) to 4 th April 2025 (Friday)	During the twelfth week of my internship, I studied the regulatory frameworks established by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), focusing on their roles, key regulations, and impact on the services sectors and MA/NT limitations.
5	WEEK 5 7 th April (Monday) to 9 th April 2025 (Friday)	I assisted in preparing the session schedule for the upcoming stakeholders' meeting, ensuring a well-organized productive discussions and effective time management.

This is to certify that Mr Dhruv Gahlot, student of Law 5th Year (10th semester) at FairField Institute of Management and Technology (GGSIPU affiliated) course BBA LLB, Enrolment No- 02690103520 has pursued internship in my lawyer's chamber/office from the period commencing 1st February 2025- 30th April 2025.

I may highlight that during the said period, he had the opportunity to witness proceedings in the Delhi High Court and District courts in connection with Criminal Appeals arising against conviction/acquittal, Revision Petitions, Bail Applications and Writ Petitions filed by convicts seeking grant of parole and also various different criminal and family matters in district courts of Delhi. Furthermore, in the capacity of a student-intern he was regularly delegated the task of researching on legal propositions and drafting that were germane to the cases listed before the Court.

I have found Dhruv Gahlot to be well-behaved and sincere. During the course of internship, he has exhibited an unparalleled zest to learn. Dhruv Gahlot is endowed with the rare instinct of making efforts from his own end to understand the sublime philosophy underlying the legislative provisions. He possesses sound legal acumen that can be honed further to achieve heights in this profession.

I wish him luck for all future endeavours.

MR. GAURAV KUMAR, a 5th-year student of the B.B.A. LL.B. course at Fairfield Institute of Management & Technology, GGSIPU, Delhi, was associated with our office as a student-intern from 01 February 2025 to 31 March 2025. During this brief period, he demonstrated exceptional hard work, sincerity, and dedication. We entrusted him with a variety of assignments involving diverse legal matters, and he consistently demonstrated exceptional efficiency by completing them well within the stipulated timelines. These assignments involved reading case laws, preparing short notes on the facts of the brief, assisting in research, observing court proceedings, and taking notes on the hearing. Throughout his internship, he conducted in-depth research on various legal propositions across diverse fields of practice, with a primary focus on Criminal, Service, and Civil matters.

During his term at our office, Mr. Gaurav carried out the responsibilities assigned to him most satisfactorily. He was actively involved in the research work assigned to him, and he completed all the tasks with the utmost dedication. He also had the occasion to follow the filing work of the court clerks, which gave him valuable insight into the intricacies of filing in the Registry and how to overcome and rectify the objections they raised. Further, he also assisted us in the proceedings before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi. His attitude towards work demonstrated utmost discipline and perseverance.
