Bhumika Nangia came to work as an intern between June 25, 2018 and August 18, 2018 at Gurgaon Ki Awaaz Samudayik Radio Station, a community radio broadcasting in the Delhi suburb of Gurgaon.

In her two months at the radio station Bhumika has taken part in almost all aspects of production and broadcasting in a community radio station.

She has recorded for a number of pre-produced programs such as:

- Kavlaya – a weekly poetry program
- Dil ki Baat , Shayari ke sath – a weekly poetry program
- Gurgaon ke haal – a daily roundup of what is happening in Gurgaon
- Apni pasand – a daily music request program

Bhumika has also regularly taken part in the station's Live programs, which include:

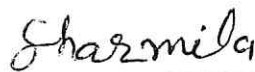

- 1.Kahani ki Gathariya – a thrice a week program of storytelling followed by a live interaction
- 2.Gurgaon ke haal – a daily roundup of what is happening in Gurgaon
- 3.Antakshari – a weekly Live singing program

Community radio focusses on the community, hence reportage and research in the field is critical. Bhumika has joined reporters in our field work, including:

1. Narrowcasting of the program "Career Express" at Agrasar Skill Training Centres
2. Narrowcasting of "Career Express" program at Rudset Institute

Bhumika is a committed worker who shows great promise. I wish her the very best for her future endeavours.

Gurgaon Ki Awaaz is an award-winning community radio station broadcasting in Gurgaon, a suburb of India's capital city, New Delhi. A platform for the voices of marginalized communities in Gurgaon, the station broadcasts 22 hours a day, 7 days a week, and attempts to bridge the information gap between those who are plugged into the information revolution and those who are not.

The station has been set up and is supported by The Restoring Force, an NGO which has been working in the area of basic school infrastructure, career counseling and solar lighting of non-electrified villages in Rajasthan since 2002.
