

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

FAIRFIELD INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY

SCHOOL OF LAW

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

CLIENT PROBLEM-1

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

The Character in preposition is Male and should be portrayed accordingly.

Roopali, a second-year college student of engineering, residing at K-24/ A, Jagjeevan Ashram road, Indore, Madhya Pradesh. She was studying in GPU in Delhi. Recently, the college got selected in a national level cultural and nature trekking camp which was organized by Guwahati Central University, for 5 days from 23rd May – 27th May, 2020. All the interested students took part in the event. She was the head girl of her college and subsequently became the student representative of the college. It appeared that 253 students out of 700 & 30 teachers registered themselves to join this camp from the college.

When they reached the Camp by Bus on 22nd May, 07.00 P.M. She came to know that various other students from top private universities including M.L. Goenka, P.A. Cindal and Symboys etc. were also present there. As per the schedule of camp, on 23rd May at 10.00 A.M. the Orientation Programme was held.

Sarthak, a 4th year engineering student and the student representative of his college, P.A. Cindal, Lucknow a college famous for its good will and the best quality education. During the Orientation, Sarthak and his 3 friends (Rishi, Ritik & Rahul) refused to talk with her and her friends because she belonged to a middle-class background and her college was Hindi medium. He insulted her deliberately by commenting on her dark complexion and dressing sense in front of other students who were present at the Orientation.

She chose to remain silent because her college teachers insisted her to save the college's reputation by not showing absurd behavior by engaging in an argument.

On the next day 24th May, early morning by 05.00 A.M., one of her friend informed her about the digital alteration of her photographs and posting the same on various pornographic Websites and this incident was already known to maximum students presented in the camp.

On the same day she started receiving vulgar calls from various national as well as international unknown numbers asking for unpleasant favours. She discussed the issue with her teachers. Everyone was aware about the incident of orientation but no action has been taken against satvik & his friends as he was the son of chief minister of Uttar Pradesh.

On 25th of the May at 10.00 A.M., students were taken for the trekking to the nearby hill valley. After reaching at halt, she tried to confront Sarthak & his friends about the recent happenings as

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

Sarthak was a suspect in her eyes. As the conversation was going on all of a sudden, his legs slipped and he fell down from the hill at 11.10 A.M. When everybody got to know about this incident, they thought that Roopali was involved in the death of Sarthak as she had the reasons to take revenge from him.

Police reached at the spot at 11.45 A.M. and enquire about the incident thereafter FIR was lodged against Roopali pressing the Charges of Section 302,500,34,120B.

Now Roopali's Father wants to seek relief from these allegations and wants to get out from this situation without any hustle.

Client Instructions: This is your basic story; you are free to fill in any gaps in the facts or in your personal history in any way that seems appropriate. You may not change any of the facts in this account, or say anything directly contradictory to these facts. You may adopt any attitude you like with your lawyer, as long as it is consistent with the story.