

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

FAIRFIELD INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AND TECHNOLOGY

SCHOOL OF LAW

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

CLIENT PROBLEM-2

1st CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION, 2020

The Character in preposition is male and should be portrayed accordingly

Rajesh Sharma aged 32 years residing at D-24/A Block, Boring Road, and Karnataka. He is an architect and lives with his parents and younger brother Rajan

Rajesh got married to Jenifer D'Souza, on 15th March 1992 under the Special Marriage act, who is a well known dentist and a year later, on 17th January 1993 they were blessed with a daughter named Varsha. Jenifer was an extra vagant person in nature. She believes in leading a good lifestyle. On the other hand her husband did not like this nature of his wife. Due to inflation in the economy Rajesh lost his job on 27th April 1999 and soon they ran out of money which led to financial crisis in their house. But Jenifer didn't change her way of living and she tried every little efforts to maintain her standard of living. Rajesh tried to convince his wife but Jenifer did not change her nature and eventually this created a dispute between them. Due to these arguments on daily basis Jenifer became mentally disturbed and decided to leave her matrimonial house alone without any cash or jewellery.

Next day Jenifer came to her matrimonial house with some police officers. After which Rajesh got to know that Jenifer have lodged a False FIR against him & his parents on 31 December 1999 under section 498 A, 406 & 323 of IPC & charges of Domestic violence. She even showed her false bruises and injury marks on her body about which Rajesh had no idea. Eventually police arrested Rajesh and his Parents Immediately.

Now Rajesh's younger brother wants his parents and elder brother out of the jail as it caused humiliation to their family in the society.

Client Instructions: This is your basic story; you are free to fill in any gaps in the facts or in your personal history in any way that seems appropriate. You may not change any of the facts in this account, or say anything directly contradictory to these facts. You may adopt any attitude you like with your lawyer, as long as it is consistent with the story.