The institutional distinction includes social outreach, field studies, and job orientation programs in respective areas of Study.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR:-

The Present National Seminar on the theme of Transformative Potential of Education & World Wide Issues is organized by Fairfield College affiliated to GGSIPU.

The National Education Policy 2020 emphasizes education as having transformative potential that lies in its ability to empower individuals with critical thinking skills, address global challenges like inequality and climate change, and ultimately contribute to a more sustainable and equitable world. Education serves as a catalyst for transformative change on a global scale. By imparting knowledge and fostering critical thinking, it equips individuals to confront and address pressing issues. Worldwide challenges such as poverty, inequality, and environmental degradation can be mitigated through the transformative power of education.

In order to give experts in the area and interested parties a forum to talk and deliberate on some crucial elements pertaining to school education, Fair Field Institute of Management & Technology is making this effort.

AIM OF THE SEMINAR:-

Regarding the changes taking place in India's education system, the national seminar aims to exchange and discuss concepts, research findings, scholarly methodologies, field-level experiences, empirical studies, inventions, and innovations.

OBJECTIVE OF THE SEMINAR:-

- To understand and discuss the principles and practices of transformative potential of education to bring positive change at personal, societal and global levels.
- To raise awareness about pressing worldwide issues emphasizing the role of education in addressing and mitigating these challenges.
- To explore innovative teaching and learning methods that can empower individuals to solve problems and contribute to positive societal transformations.
- To support transformative education, ensuring it becomes a central focus in educational agendas worldwide.
- To create a holistic and transformative learning environment.
- To explore the skills and competencies needed in the 21st century.
