The institutional distinction includes social outreach, field studies, and job orientation programs in respective areas of Study with specialized Add On Courses.

INTRODUCTION OF THE CERTIFICATE COURSE

Victimology is a specialized field of criminology that concentrates on the examination of victims, their experiences, and the justice system's response to victimization. The necessity of a strong victim justice framework has become increasingly apparent in India as a result of the growing concern regarding victim rights, protection, and rehabilitation. The purpose of this course on Victimology and Victim Justice is to equip students with a comprehensive understanding of victimization, legal frameworks, and the mechanisms that are available to ensure justice for victims in India.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Familiarize students with the fundamental concepts of victimology, such as the categories and causes of victimization.
- Educate students on the Indian laws that pertain to victims, such as the BNS, BNSS, Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO), and victim compensation schemes.
- Provide students with information regarding the legal remedies that are available to them and the rights of victims.
- Investigate the principles of restorative justice and their implementation in the Indian context.
- Examine the role of government and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in the provision of psychological counseling, rehabilitation, and victim support.
- Examine significant cases and practical experiences related to victim justice in India.

COURSE OUTCOME

Upon successful completion of the course, students will possess the ability to:

- Comprehend the historical evolution and theoretical frameworks of victimology.
- Assess the efficacy of legal and regulatory frameworks for victim protection in India.
- Evaluate the function of restorative justice in achieving comprehensive justice for victims.
- Acquire competencies to support victims in legal and psychological domains.
- Evaluate the efficacy of victim support programs and propose enhancements.
- Evaluate Indian victim justice processes against worldwide best practices.

EVALUATION METHODOLOGY OF THE CERTIFICATE COURSE

Evaluation methodology includes Hybrid Mode, Subjective and Objective Assessment, Presentation, class contribution and any other component as decided by the respective course faculties. A minimum of 75% attendance is a prerequisite for the successful completion of this program.
