ABOUT FAIRFIELD COLLEGE

The Fairfield Institute of Management and Technology (FIMT) is a NAAC accredited prestigious college in Delhi with an ambiance of representing the academic culture of the capital town of the largest democracy of the world and a vibrant emerging economy. Established by the Fairfield Group of Institutions, it is an A+ Grade College approved by the Government of NCT of Delhi, affiliated to the prestigious Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, which is the first university established by the Government of Delhi.

FIMT is approved by the Bar Council of India and National Council for Teacher Education and other authenticating bodies. It is backed by a legacy of 50 years of shaping students' career in the country in areas of Management, Commerce, Teachers Education, Journalism, Information and Communication Technology, Humanities, Law and Legal Studies. The institutional distinction includes social outreach, field studies and job orientation programs in respective areas of study. It offers improvising add on and value addition courses, especially with health care and other significant activities in context. Its vision is to equip students with the knowledge, skill and values that are necessary for sustaining one's balance between a livelihood and life by providing an effective, supportive, safe, accessible and affordable learning environment.

ABOUT FIMT – SCHOOL OF LAW

The School of Law is committed to uncovering new areas of law and policy through a dynamic approach that actively engages in the development of legal theory and practice. It is dedicated to enhancing students' academic potential, honing their critical analytical skills and refining their advocacy abilities. The program is meticulously designed to offer an intellectually stimulating, socially significant and professionally rewarding education. By providing in-depth knowledge and rigorous training across a variety of legal subjects, the course enables students to gain a comprehensive understanding of legal responsibilities and their professional applications.

Furthermore, the curriculum is enriched with opportunities for practical experience, such as internships with law firms, clerkships with judges and participation in moot court competitions. These experiences are crucial in helping students apply their theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios, thereby bridging the gap between academic study and practical application. The school also emphasizes the importance of ethical considerations in legal practice, preparing students to uphold the highest standards of integrity. Through a combination of lectures, seminars and hands-on training, the School of Law ensures that graduates are well-prepared to tackle the diverse challenges of the legal field, making them competitive candidates in the job market.

ABOUT NATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (NHRC)

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) of India was established on 12 October, 1993. The statute under which it is established is the Protection of Human Rights Act (PHRA), 1993 as amended by the Protection of Human Rights (Amendment) Act, 2019.

Section 2(1)(d) of the PHR Act, 1993 defines Human Rights as the rights relating to life, liberty, equality and dignity of the individual guaranteed by the Constitution or embodied in the International Covenants and enforceable by courts in India.

It is in conformity with the Paris Principles, adopted at the first International workshop on National Institutions for the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights held in Paris in October 1991, and endorsed by the General Assembly of the United Nations by its Regulations 48/134 of 20 December, 1993.

The NHRC is an embodiment of India's concern for the promotion and protection of human rights.

ABOUT FIMT- MOOT COURT SOCIETY JUSTICE PREVAILS

The Moot Court Society Justice Prevails at Fairfield Institute of Management and Technology, School of Law stands as a pivotal institution for nurturing the next generation of legal professionals. It serves as a vibrant platform dedicated to enhancing both academic prowess and advocacy skills among law students. By organizing a range of engaging events, notably the prestigious annual All India Moot Court Competition, the society provides students with invaluable opportunities to engage in realistic simulations of courtroom proceedings.

These practical experiences are crucial in developing key skills such as public speaking, analytical thinking, and legal reasoning, all of which are indispensable for a thriving legal career. The society's dedication to fostering intellectual growth and facilitating the practical application of legal knowledge is essential in shaping students into confident and capable advocates. By offering an environment that emphasizes both academic and professional excellence, the Moot Court Society Justice Prevails plays an instrumental role in preparing students to face the challenges of the legal profession with confidence.

Through spirited debates and comprehensive legal analyses, participants are encouraged to excel and embrace their potential as future leaders in the legal field. The society's activities not only bolster students' confidence but also equip them with the necessary skills to navigate the complexities of the legal world. By promoting a culture of excellence and integrity, the society ensures that its members are well-prepared to make meaningful contributions to the legal community.

The society invites students to join its mission to ensure "Justice Prevails" in every endeavour. As an integral part of the educational experience at Fairfield Institute of Management and Technology, School of Law, the Moot Court Society continues to inspire and empower the next generation of legal professionals. By providing a robust foundation in both theory and practice, the society ensures that its members are ready to succeed in the ever-evolving legal landscape. Through its commitment to excellence, the Moot Court Society Justice Prevails is dedicated to shaping the future of law and ensuring that justice remains at the forefront of all its efforts.
