The School of Education organized "Non-Fire Food Competition" on 'World Food Day' for the students of B.Ed. I st SEM. The purpose of organizing this event is to create awareness about the nutritional value of food cooked without flame and develop their culinary skills. All participants cooked the variety of dishes with full zeal and enthusiasm. Flameless cooking methods consume less energy and produce fewer emissions, which is beneficial for the environment. Esteemed judges Mr. Manish Jha, Dr. Suman Yadav, and Mr. Shashi Kant Tiwari judged dishes on the criteria of taste, flavor, nutrient value, and presentation. The judges announced the following results of winners:

First Position: Group no. 11 (Nishi Prashansa & Simran)

Second Position: Group no. 13 (Tripti & Shreya)

Third Position: Group no.17 (Shivani Gulia)

As the outcomes of this event, it developed the spirit of self-confidence, culinary skills, and appreciating the hard work put into cooking among the students. This also helped to explore the creativity and discover new areas of interest among the students. This method of cooking is more sustainable and healthy.
